ORDER:

In the reference first read above, Three Member Committee was constituted to scrutinize the existing cooperative enactments and draft a comprehensive and vibrant Cooperative Legislation that fulfills the objectives specified above and helps in revitalizing and consolidating the Cooperative Movement in the State.

2. In the reference second read above, the Commissioner for Cooperation & Registrar of Cooperative Societies, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad stated that the said Committee which constituted to draft a Unified Cooperative Law for Andhra Pradesh to replace the existing (2) Cooperative Acts viz., Andhra Pradesh Cooperative Societies Act, 1964 and Andhra Pradesh Mutually Aided Cooperative Societies Act, 1995 has submitted the first draft of the Unified Act and also informed that, as the Cooperative Act will be of great public importance since it aims at enabling the citizens to form cooperatives voluntarily and manage them as autonomous and democratic institutions in accordance with the provisions of the Act for their economic and social betterments, it is desirable that the provisions of the draft Act are debated by the public and various stake holders before finalization and requested the draft Act be made available on the Government website with free access to the public, so as to enable the public to give their feed back on the proposed provisions of the Act and proposed to hold Seminars and Workshops with various stake holders to ascertain their views on the draft.

3. Government after careful examination of the matter hereby permit the Commissioner for Cooperation & Registrar of Cooperative Societies, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad to be made available the draft Act on the Government website with free access to the public, so as to enable the public to give their feed back on the proposed provisions of the Act and also to hold Seminars and Workshops with various stake holders to ascertain their views on the draft.

4. The Commissioner for Cooperation & Registrar of Cooperative Societies, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad is requested to submit the final draft of Andhra Pradesh Cooperative Societies Act, 2010 after ascertaining the views of public and various stake holders to Government for taking further course of action.
